'TIs now full Twenty Years that I have been engaged in compiling the above-mentioned Treatise. There's no Intelligent Reader, but will allow it to be a Work of time; tho (perhaps) a Person that had not those avocations to other important Services for the Church of God, might sooner have dispatch'd it: but sat cito, si sat bene, 'tis soon enough, if well, which is submitted to the judgment of the truly Judicious. That the Work is of great concern to all, that attend to Divine Things, and account an Understanding of the Scriptures their true Interest and Advantage, must be acknowledg'd. Many helps the Lord hath afforded in that matter, but never ought of this Kind hath been published. The Toil of the Work hath been alleviated by the Divine Sweetness communicated in the Managery of it. 'Tis suited not only to the Learned, but such as are unskilful in the Tongues, to whom by it the Scripture in its first Native Language, both of the Hebrew in the Old, and the Greek in the New Testament is made familiar; besides other Advantages too large here to be mentioned. The Burden hath been great in Compiling it, the Charge in Publishing will not be small. The Author therefore hath been prevail'd upon by several Judicious and Learned Persons to make the ensuing Proposals in order to its being printed and published.

1. That the Whole shall be contained in Two Volumes, each consisting of three hundred Sheets or thereabout. The Paper the same with that of these Proposals, and both Paper and Print with the Specimen hereunto annexed.

A

2. That

2. That tho the Charge of Printing will be far greater (considering the many Hebrew Words, which the Judicious know will much inhanse the Price) than that of other Books of the same Magnitude, yet for the incouragement of any, who shall be pleased, by Subscription, to promote the Design, there shall be a Book compleat in Quires deliver'd for twenty five Shillings, to be paid, ten Shillings in hand, and fifteen Shillings at the Delivery of the Book to the Subscriber, or his order. Which otherwise will not be sold under thirty, or thirty five Shillings in Quires.

3. That the Subscribers, with all expedition, signify to the Persons hereafter named their readiness to contribute according to the Second Proposal for the carrying on the Work: that if there be, by Subscription, incouragement given, that then upon notice to them, they do, within one Fortnight, deposite in the hands of the said Persons, according as they subscribed, upon which the Work shall immediatly be set on foot.

4. The Persons that we desire to take Subscriptions and receive the Money, are, For the City of London, Mr. Kiffin, Merchant, Mr. Thimmeton, Merchant, Mr. Alexander Merial, Stationer, Mr. Benj. Keach. For the City of Bristol, and parts adjacent, Mr. Halloway, Merchant, Mr. Terril, Merchant, Mr. John Richardson, Merchant. For the City of Worcester, Mr. Philip Bearcroft, Mr. Evans. For the City of Glocester, Mr. Wade, Mr. Bacon. For Teuxbury, and other Parts of Glocester-shire, Mr. Henry Collet, Mr. Thomas Skey. For Bromsgrove, Mr. John Eckles. For Evesham, Mr. Bayliffe. For the City of Exon, Mr. Adam Pierce, Mr. Hart, Mr. Adams. For Plymouth, Mr. Samuel Buttal, Mr. Joseph Wilcox. For Totness, Mr. Forty. For Warwick, Dr. Cook, Mr. Hurd. For Henley upon Thames, Mr. William Tyler, Mr. Mathews. For Redding, Mr. Jnyce. For Abbingdon, Mr. Lofton, Mr. Tomkins. For Wallingford, Mr. Vernon, Mr. Cox.

Those that in other parts are willing to promote the Work, are desired to signify it to the Persons above-named in London.

5. That when we begin the Work, which shall be so soon as ever we find we are enabled to go through with it by the Subscriptions desired, two if not three Presses shall be employed in it, 'till the whole be finish'd.

6. That whosoever shall subscribe for six Books in manner aforesaid, shall have a seventh freely deliver'd to him.

7. If any shall freely contribute towards the carrying on so good a Work, their Names shall be with honour mentioned in the Preface to it.

Phrases explained.

D*Eut.* 32. 22. A Fire is kindled in mine Anger.] Heb. In my Nose, i.e. by the breath of my Nostrils, for Fire is kindled by Breath. The fiery, tremendous Judgments of God are hereby signified, see Amos 2. 2, 5. Ezek. 30. 8.

Job 9. 13. God will not withdraw his Anger.] viz. 1. For Fear, or the Rebuke, Prohibition, or the Resistance of any. 2. From Persons obstinately wicked, impenitently rebellious.

Psal. 6. 1. Rebuke me not in thine Anger.] i.e. 1. Let it be gently, moderatly. He doth not deprecate the Judgment, Punishment, but the Grievousness of it: In Anger we are apt to forget Moderation and Equity, see Jer. 10. 24. & 46. 28. 2. Do not deal with me in the Strictness of Legal Justice, let all be tempered with Grace.

Pf. 78. 49. Cast upon them the fierceness of his Anger] i.e. those dreadful Plagues, and astonishing Judgments were inflicted on the Egyptians.

Psal. 78. 50. Made way for his Anger.] i.e. 1. He punished them speedily. 2. He sent his Judgments immediatly from Heaven upon them. 3. He did nothing to them, but what was just and equal, he proportioned their Punishment to their Sins. (some read, He weighed the Path to his Anger, see Way.) 4. He inflicted that Punishment that was protracted, tho long deferred. 5. He directed his Anger to the right mark, the Egyptians, whilst the Israelites escaped.

Psal. 90. 11. Who knoweth the power of thine Anger?] i.e. Thy strong, grievous, insuperable Anger. q.d. 1. None can sufficiently comprehend the strength of thine Anger, which now thus burns against us for our Sins. 2. None lay to heart, attend to know the causes of thine Anger. 3. None are affected with it, so as to repent, amend their Waies.

Prov. 22. 8. The Rod of his Anger shall fail.] i.e. 1. He shall cease to afflict, vex, oppress. See Isa. 14. 5, 6. Lam. 3. 1. 2. His Authority, Power, which he useth with Cruelty against his Subjects, or weak ones, shall cease. 3. As in his proud Anger he afflicted, persecuted the Poor, he shall be distressed, destroyed by the Lord.

Ecc. 7. 9. Anger resteth in the Bosom of Fools.] i.e. 1. Remains long with them. 2. Never departs from them. 3. They are prone to it. 4. It is their property. 5. It delights them, they love it, cherish it (that is said to be in the Bosom, which is loved, cherished, Deut. 13. 6. & 28. 56.)

Isa. 5. 25. The Anger of the Lord was kindled against his People] i.e. 1. He brought his Judgments upon them, grievously afflicted them, either under Joash by the Syrians, 2 Kin. 12. 17. or under Amasia by the Israelites, 2 Chron. 25. 22. or rather under Ahaz, 2 Chron. 28. 5, 8, 17, 20. see Isa. 1. 7, 9. 2. The Lord will certainly distress them by the Chaldeans (the Preter-tense put for the Future, for the certainty of the event.)

Isa. 13. 3. Called — in mine Anger] i.e. To execute mine Anger.

Jer. 32. 31. As a Provocation of mine Anger.] i.e. 1. It hath wholly addicted it self to provoke me to Anger. 2. Jerusalem was so devoted to this Madness, that it did not cease to enkindle the Lord's Anger more and more.

Lam. 3. 43. Thou hast covered with Anger —] i.e. Thou hast pitcht the tent of thy Fury against us, that we may not see whither to go. 2. Thou hast placed thine Anger betwixt thee and us, as a Bar to hinder us from flying to thee in our Affliction. 3. Thou coverest thy Face that thou maiest not behold the evils that are brought upon us, and so pity us, q.d. Thou implacably punishest us (for upon the sight of a sad Spectacle the most are inclined to Mercy.) It is an Allusion, 1. To the manner of covering the Face of Mourners, 2 Sam. 15. 30. Eft. 6. 12. Or the Condemned, Eft. 7. 8. Or rather, 2. To the Cloud of Afflictions in which one is involved.

Ezek. 5. 13. Thus shall mine Anger be accomplished] i.e. 1. It shall cease, 'tis a Promise of Pardon (so some.) Rather, 2. It shall not cease in the Mid-way, it shall go on to the highest Degree: I'll restrain, keep it no longer, as Psal. 78. 39. I'll stir up all my Wrath, let it out to the full. Now Plague, Famine, Sword, Dispersion, shall have their Will, Power over you; I'll inflict to the utmost what I have conceived, threatned against you.

Ezek. 35. 11. I will do according to thine Anger.] i.e. I'll retaliate thee, as thou hast in thy Anger and Ambition severely handled, grievously distressed the Jews, so I'll deal with, and grievously punish thee.

Hof. 8. 5. Mine Anger is kindled against them.] i.e. 1. Against the Calves. 2. Against the Israelites, the Worshipers of them; they are so far from pleasing me with such Worship, that they thereby provoke me to their own Destruction.

Hof.

Hof. 11. 9. I'll not execute the Fierceness of mine Anger.] Heb. The burning of mine Anger, q. d. It is true your Sins and Arguments against you, did lie at my Heart, and did even burn it, but I will not execute that, I will execute the kindling of my Mercy, but not the kindling of mine Anger.

Amos 1. 11. His Anger did tear perpetually.] i. e. He (Edom, the Idumeans) cruelly, constantly, pertinaciously (as wild Beasts, that when they have fastned, let not go their hold) retain'd his Anger. He alludes to Esau, who kept his Wrath against his Brother Jacob, Gen. 27. 41. q. d. You are too much like your Father, in cherishing your Revenge in your Hearts, and keeping it perpetually, and being altogether implacable.

Col. 3. 21. Provoke not your Children to Anger.] i. e. Be not morose to them, do not rashly, or without cause, chide or beat them. Fathers provoke their Children to Anger, 1. If they deny them what of right belongs to them, as Food, Raiment, Education, &c. 2. If they lay their Commands upon them to do things impious, unlawful, as 1 Sam. 20. 31. Mat. 14. 8. 3. If they rashly and without cause give them contumelious, hard Words. 4. If they correct them undeservingly, or beyond bounds, 1 Sam. 20. 33. Compare Lent. 25. 2, 3.

X.

Scriptures reconciled.

Psal. 30. 5. His Anger endureth but for a Moment. Mal. 1. 4. The Lord hath Indignation for Ever.

The Psalmist tells us, The Lord's Anger is but of a short continuance: and Jer. 3. 12. We are assured he will not keep his Anger for ever; which the Prophet also tells us Mich. 7. 18. Yet Mal. 1. 4. the Anger or Indignation of God is said to be for ever. And elsewhere he tells us of a Fire kindled in his Anger, that should burn to the lowest Hell, Deut. 32. 22. (pointing forth its Vehemency, Terribleness, Duration) of everlasting Fire, Mat. 18. 8. & 25. 41. that never shall be quenched, Mar. 9. 43, 44, 45, 46. eternal Fire, Jude 7. Whereby the Perpetuity of the Lord's Anger is signified.

Reconcil.

God's Anger and seeming Displeasure against the repenting, contrite, humble, broken Believer is but of a short continuance. In this sense the first Rank of Scriptures are to be taken: His Wrath, Indignation against hard-hearted and finally impenitent Rebels, is for ever; of which the last quoted Scriptures are to be understood.

Hof. 8. 5. My Anger is kindled against them. Isa. 27. 4. Fury is not in me.

The first Place saith that there is Anger in God: the second, that there is none.

Reconcil.

1. Anger and Fury as they are Passions in us, are not in the Lord; of this the last Scripture may be understood: as they denote his Vindictive Justice, they are in him, and are frequently ascribed to him; of this the first Scripture speaketh. 2. There is Anger and Fury in the Lord against the Wicked, of which Hosea speaks; none against his Saints and Children, of which Isaiah treats.

Hof. 13. 7, 8.

Hof. 11. 9. I will not execute the Fierceness of mine Anger, &c. I will be to them as a Lion—I will meet them as a Bear bereaved of her Whelps, and will rent the Caul of their Heart, and there will I devour them like a Lion.

The first Place saith, that God will not execute the Fierceness of his Anger: the latter intimates, that he would, and indeed they endur'd three Years Siege, and were carried into Captivity.

Reconcil.

1. Tho God did suffer them to be carried away Captive, and their Enemies prevail'd against them, (and so might seem to be as a Lion, &c.) yet there was not the Fierceness, the Burning of his Anger against them; he did not make them as Admah and Zeboim. 2. The Lord had in their carrying into Captivity, respect unto his Elect ones; and hath to this very Day an Intention to do them good afterwards.

Mat. 5. 22.

Whosoever is angry with his Brother without a cause shall be in danger of the Judgment. Eph. 4. 6. Be angry.

The one Place condemns, the other commands Anger.

Reconcil.

1. Rash, causeless, and excessive Anger upon a selfish account is condemned by Christ in the first Scripture: judicious and just Anger, against Sin, or the Person sinning with respect to his Sin, out of Tendernefs to the Glory of God, and Love to the Soul of the Sinner, is that which is commanded in the second Scripture. 2. Some think the Words of the Apostle are not Preceptive, but Interdictive rather, q. d. Be angry, and forbear sinning if you can; you must needs sin if you be angry.
